ANDREW: I can't believe he killed me off in the game Shelly!

SHELLY: Gary is so bad at Call of Aliens, he shouldn't even be allowed to play.

ANDREW: I really want to punish him in some way...

SHELLY: How?

ANDREW: I don't know, like maybe call his phone 1000 times until his phone breaks. Or better yet, get a bunch of random strangers to show up at his house to scare him.

SHELLY: How are you going to get random strangers to do that?

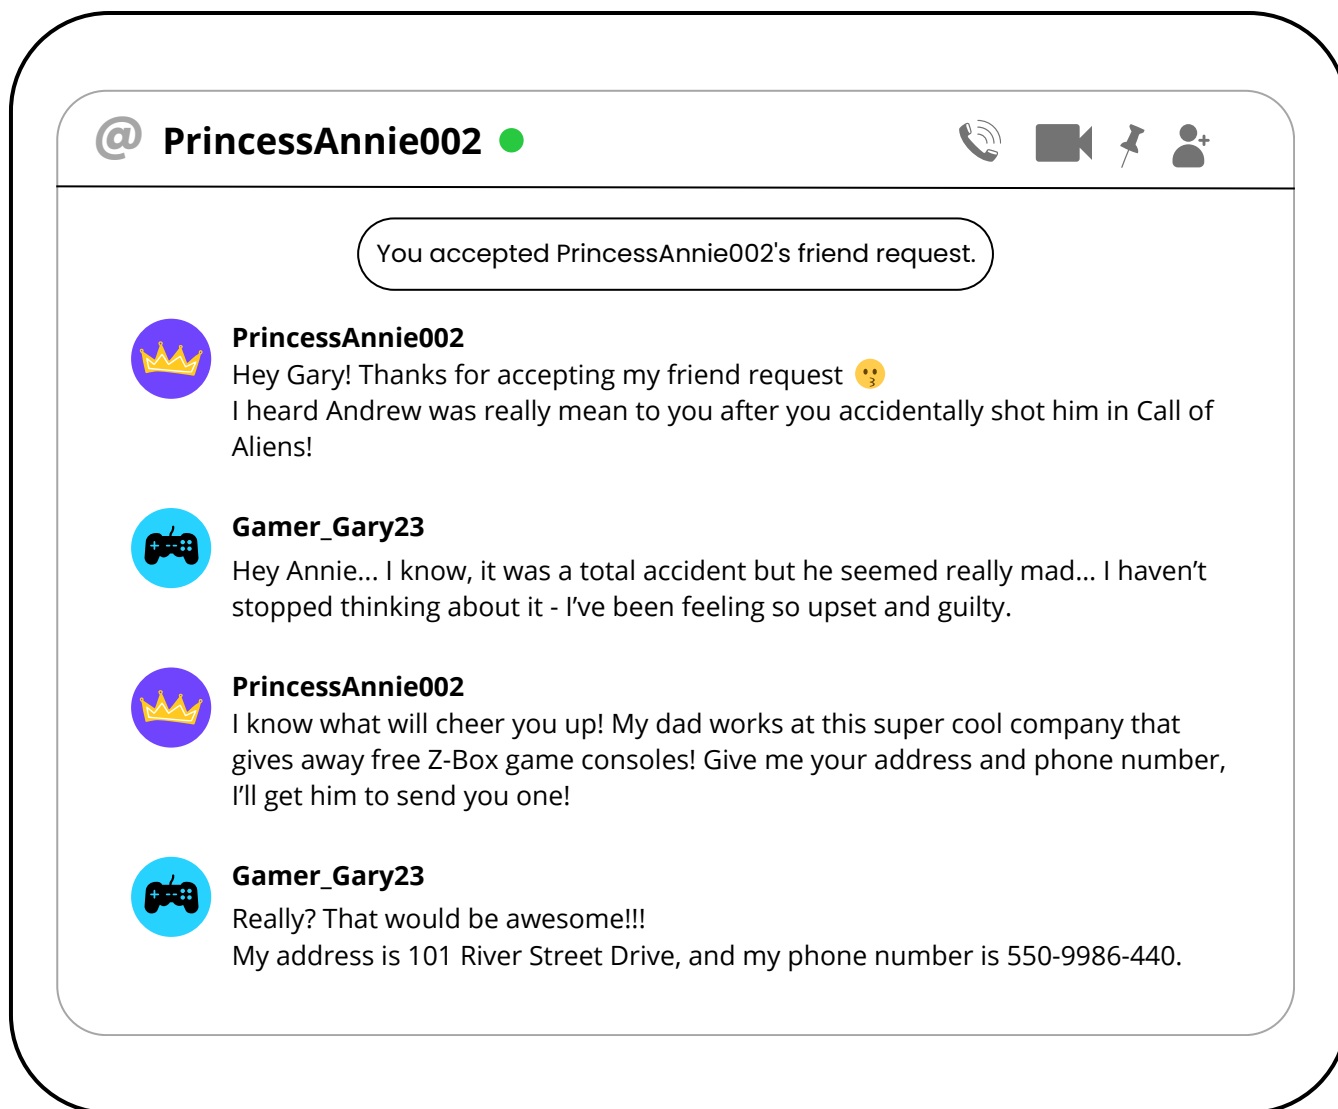

ANDREW: Come on... I have 3,045 followers on Switch. I'm sure I can think of something!

SHELLY: This sounds scary, Andrew. Just relax! It's just a game, why are you so angry at Gary?

ANDREW: No, Shelly. I will not relax! I'm not letting this go.

SHELLY: Okay, just leave me out of it. I don't want to get in trouble.

INTERNET POLICE DEPARTMENT

Official ReportREPORTED BY: Gary COMPLAINT AGAINST: Andrew "KingAndrew001"INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

It all started when I accidentally shot him while we were all playing Call of Aliens online, and I apologised immediately but for some reason Andrew seemed to be really mad about it.

I later learned he had posed as another user online called "PrincessAnnie002" to get my personal information. He then posted my address and phone number publicly and ordered his followers to attack me!

I have received 12,098 calls in the past week and had strangers knocking on my door and leaving things at my doorstep. I'm scared for my life and feel anxious every time the doorbell rings now. I don't know what these people want to do to me. Even my parents don't know what to do.

1. While cyberbullying takes place online, it can have serious real world implications. Do you know your local laws and the rights you have online?
2. What are some strategies you can use to protect your personal information online and prevent it from being used to harm you?
3. Why do you think people engage in trickery and doxxing in online interactions?
